

We the State of WI does not need you to destroy our no call list which we have had long before you started yours. Ours is free of any special groups as I am sure yours would not be. As your are run by special interest groups.